

SUCCESS MANIFESTO

I am destined for success.

I am born a winner.

I wake up every day stronger and better, ready to pursue my goals, follow my desires and make my dreams come true.

*I am a Student. Every hour of my day I learn something new and teach it to my fellow men.
Cause I am a Teacher too...*

I am a Warrior. I fight every fight as it is my last. And I never get defeated but losses are better teachers than victories...

I am a Leader. People follow me on the path to Success and Prosperity. We change our lives for good and better. And we experience everyday miracles.

I am a Believer. The Faith is strong with me as I am convinced that people are responsible for their lives and destinies. And anyone can change...I am the Change.

I am grateful. I thank and respect every person that came into my life with the one and only purpose: to teach me a lesson.

I am a Miracle. My life is a miracle. The Magic of Life runs through my veins and the Power of the Universe manifests its' Glory through me.

I am happy. I praise every moment of my life and cherish any chance of laughter and happiness.

I am the result of my actions that are the result of my habits that are the result of my thoughts.

I am successful. For success is nothing more than a journey on a path that never ends.

My path is joyful and with a Heart.

I will go an extra mile today...
